

Board Governance

Pitt County Schools consists of a 12-member governing Board of Education. It is made up of six districts, with two seats per district. Members are elected on a nonpartisan basis and serve six-year staggered terms. The superintendent is appointed by the Board and serves as secretary to the Board.

How Meetings Work

- The board has policies defining its responsibilities and setting procedures for considering issues. If you want to see the board policies, please contact the Office of Public Information or log on to our website at www.pitt.k12.nc.us.
- The superintendent reports to the board as information or for action. The board receives information on reports prior to meetings so that board members may study the material.

What's on Each Agenda

Each regular meeting contains:

- a public comments forum where the public may address the board
- reports and recommendations on issues the board must consider for action
- discussion items facing the board which are not yet ready for action
- reports to give the board information
- a closed session when the board must deal with contractual or personnel items or when a legal briefing is necessary

Public Expression

- If you want to address an issue before the board, you may do so during public expression.
- Anyone wanting to address the board may sign up at the meeting prior to the beginning of each regular meeting.
- Remember that personnel matters, matters involving attorney/client privilege, or specific students of the school system cannot be addressed during public expression.
- Individual speakers will be given three minutes to speak and groups will be given five minutes.
